

Project web-site

In accordance with the Project application, as one of the main tools for project visibility, web-site of the project was designed. Initial version was launched before kick-off meeting, held in Novi Sad on November 26-27, 2018. The web-site is set up at the address <http://www.ada.ac.rs/> and hosted at the premises of the University of Kragujevac, project partner responsible for dissemination. It is regularly updated with all project activities, events and results.
